Enterprise Social Media Strategy: Driving Business Impact

Ref: 321552_132209 Date: 23 – 27 November 2026 Location: London (UK) Fees: 5400 GBP

Why This Course

In today's digital-first business environment, social media is more than just a marketing channel—it's a strategic tool for brand growth, customer engagement, and organizational impact. Companies that master social media at an enterprise level can drive measurable results, strengthen brand reputation, and respond effectively to risks.

This intensive 1-week program equips professionals with advanced social media strategies, combining practical exercises, data-driven insights, and real-world case studies. Participants will leave ready to create, implement, and measure high-impact social media initiatives across major platforms.
