Professional Performance Management

Ref: 3293_134315 Date: 10 - 14 Feb 2025 Location: Maldives (Maldives) Fees: 4700 Euro

Introduction

Performance appraisal is probably the single most important management tool. Considerable skill is required to ensure that the effect is positive. The course will demonstrate the role of HR and the role of the front line manager within performance management. The course also covers the skills involved including appraisal itself; coaching and providing feedback.

This course approaches advanced performance management from two points of view

- How should an organization design and introduce an effective performance management scheme
- What personal skills do managers, supervisors, and team leaders need to be effective in performance management

Course Objectives of Professional Performance Management

- The purposes of performance management, from an organizational point of view
- The purposes of performance management from an individual's point of view
- How to make guided or forced distribution fair and effective
- The four steps of advanced performance management
- The skills involved in each of the four steps
- The links to competencies, personal development, and 360-degree feedback
- The links to performance-related pay
- The effective use of the disciplinary procedure for addressing performance problems
