Ref: 322226_191326 Date: 28 June – 2 July 2027 Location: Berlin (Germany) Fees: 5200 GBP

Why This Course

In today's commercial and legal environment, breach of contract disputes can have significant financial, operational, and strategic consequences. Understanding the remedies available for breach is essential for legal professionals, contract managers, and business decision-makers who must assess liability, protect contractual rights, and respond effectively when agreements are not performed as intended. A strong grasp of contract remedies supports better dispute management, stronger contract drafting, and more informed legal judgment.

This comprehensive 1-week course delves into the complex world of breach of contract remedies. Participants will gain in-depth knowledge of legal and equitable remedies, damages calculation, and practical strategies for resolving contract disputes. The course combines theoretical foundations with real-world applications to enhance understanding and skills in contract law.
