International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) Mastery

Ref: 322708_210439 Date: 5 – 9 July 2027 Location: London (UK) Fees: 5400 GBP

Why This Course

International Financial Reporting Standards play a major role in improving transparency, consistency, and comparability in financial reporting across global markets. For finance professionals, strong IFRS knowledge is essential for preparing reliable financial statements, interpreting financial performance, managing complex accounting treatments, and supporting informed business decisions.

As organizations grow, expand internationally, attract investors, or operate in regulated environments, IFRS compliance becomes increasingly important. Finance teams must understand not only the technical requirements of the standards, but also how to apply them to real transactions, judgments, disclosures, and reporting challenges.

This comprehensive 5-day course provides finance professionals with in-depth knowledge and practical skills in IFRS. Through technical explanations, real-world examples, accounting exercises, and financial statement analysis, participants will learn how to prepare, present, analyze, and apply IFRS-compliant financial information effectively in different business contexts.
