Islamic Finance Management: Principles and Practices Course

8 – 12 November 2027
Madrid (Spain)

Islamic Finance Management: Principles and Practices Course

Ref: 322813_214880 Date: 8 – 12 November 2027 Location: Madrid (Spain) Fees: 5200 GBP

Course Description

This intensive 1-week course provides a comprehensive overview of Islamic finance management principles and practices. Participants will gain in-depth knowledge of Shariah-compliant financial instruments, risk management strategies, and ethical investing approaches. The course covers Islamic banking operations, sukuk structures, takaful, and emerging trends in Islamic fintech.

Learning Objectives

- Understand the fundamental principles of Islamic finance and Shariah compliance
- Analyze and apply various Islamic financial instruments and structures
- Develop skills in Islamic risk management and governance
- Explore ethical investing strategies within the Islamic finance framework
- Gain insights into emerging trends and innovations in Islamic finance

Course Modules

Day 1: Foundations of Islamic Finance

- Introduction to Islamic economic principles
- Shariah compliance in financial transactions
- Comparison of conventional and Islamic finance
- Key Islamic finance contracts and structures

Day 2: Islamic Banking and Financial Instruments

- Islamic banking operations and products
- Murabaha, Musharakah, and Mudarabah structures
- Sukuk issuance and management
- Islamic asset management and funds

Day 3: Risk Management in Islamic Finance

- Shariah-compliant risk management techniques
- Liquidity management in Islamic financial institutions
- Capital adequacy and Basel III implications
- Stress testing and scenario analysis

Day 4: Islamic Insurance Takaful and Ethical Investing

- Principles and models of Takaful
- Shariah-compliant investment screening
- Islamic socially responsible investing SRI
- Waqf and Islamic microfinance

Day 5: Emerging Trends and Future of Islamic Finance

- Fintech innovations in Islamic finance
- Blockchain and smart contracts in Islamic transactions
- Regulatory challenges and standardization efforts
- Case studies of successful Islamic finance implementations

Practical Wins for Participants

- Ability to structure Shariah-compliant financial products
- Enhanced skills in Islamic risk management and governance
- Improved understanding of ethical investing strategies
- Insights into leveraging fintech for Islamic finance innovation

