OECD Economic and Legal Structure: Policy and Governance

4 – 8 January 2027
Munich (Germany)

OECD Economic and Legal Structure: Policy and Governance

Ref: 322913_218907 Date: 4 – 8 January 2027 Location: Munich (Germany) Fees: 5200 GBP

Course Description

This comprehensive 1-week course explores the economic and legal structure of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development OECD. Participants will gain in-depth knowledge of OECD's role in shaping international policies, its governance framework, and its impact on global economic cooperation. The course covers key aspects of OECD's operations, policy development processes, and legal instruments.

Learning Objectives

- Understand OECD's organizational structure and decision-making processes
- Analyze OECD's role in developing international economic policies and standards
- Examine the legal framework governing OECD operations and member countries
- Explore OECD's approach to addressing global economic challenges
- Evaluate the impact of OECD policies on national and international levels

Course Modules

Day 1: Introduction to OECD

- OECD history and evolution
- Organizational structure and governance
- OECD Convention and legal framework
- Member countries and partnership programs

Day 2: OECD Economic Policy Development

- Economic policy formulation process
- Key economic indicators and analysis
- OECD Economic Outlook and country surveys
- Policy recommendations and implementation

Day 3: OECD Legal Instruments and Standards

- Types of OECD legal instruments
- Development and adoption of standards
- Compliance mechanisms and monitoring
- Case studies of influential OECD legal instruments

Day 4: OECD's Role in Global Governance

- Cooperation with international organizations
- OECD's contribution to G20 and other global forums
- Addressing global challenges e.g., taxation, environment
- OECD's role in promoting sustainable development

Day 5: OECD Impact and Future Directions

- Evaluating the effectiveness of OECD policies
- OECD's approach to emerging economic issues
- Future challenges and strategic priorities
- Opportunities for enhanced global cooperation

Practical Wins for Participants

- Gain expertise in interpreting OECD economic data and policy recommendations
- Develop skills to navigate OECD legal instruments and their implications
- Enhance ability to contribute to policy discussions informed by OECD frameworks
- Build a network of professionals engaged in international economic cooperation

