Audit Reporting & Communication Skills

23 – 27 November 2026
London (UK)

Audit Reporting & Communication Skills

Ref: 328713_225808 Date: 23 – 27 November 2026 Location: London (UK) Fees: 5400 GBP

Why This Course

The true value of an audit lies not only in its findings, but in how those findings are communicated.

Effective audit reporting and communication bridge the gap between technical insight and strategic understanding, enabling stakeholders to make informed, timely decisions.

This program equips audit professionals with the essential skills to craft impactful audit reports, communicate results with clarity and influence, and build strong relationships with management and the board. It blends technical precision with persuasive communication to ensure audit insights drive real organizational improvement.

What You'll Learn and Practice

By joining this program, you will:

- Understand the principles of effective audit reporting and stakeholder communication.
- Learn to structure and present audit findings clearly, concisely, and persuasively.
- Develop techniques to deliver challenging messages with confidence and tact.
- Strengthen collaboration between auditors, management, and governance bodies.
- Enhance the overall impact and credibility of audit reports and presentations.

The Program Flow

Day 1: Foundations of Effective Audit Communication

- The role of communication in audit effectiveness and credibility.
- Understanding stakeholder needs and expectations.
- Key elements of impactful audit reporting and delivery.
- Workshop: analyzing examples of strong and weak audit reports.

Day 2: Structuring and Writing Audit Reports

- Crafting clear, concise, and results-oriented audit reports.
- Structuring findings, conclusions, and recommendations effectively.
- Applying tone, language, and visuals for maximum engagement.
- Practical exercise: rewriting and improving real audit report samples.

Day 3: Communicating Audit Findings with Impact

- Presenting complex information in an understandable, actionable way.
- Using storytelling, data visualization, and summaries to enhance clarity.
- Managing difficult conversations when delivering unfavorable findings.
- Role-playing: presenting audit results to management and the audit committee.

Day 4: Building Relationships and Influencing Stakeholders

- Strengthening collaboration and trust across audit and management teams.
- Handling feedback, pushback, and negotiation professionally.
- Communicating risk insights that add strategic value.
- Case study: maintaining auditor independence while fostering cooperation.

Day 5: Elevating Audit Communication at the Strategic Level

- Communicating with the board and audit committees effectively.
- Linking audit insights to organizational strategy and performance.
- Measuring communication effectiveness and continuous improvement.
- Action planning: developing your personal and team communication roadmap.

Individual Impact

- Gain confidence in writing and presenting audit findings effectively.
- Strengthen communication, influence, and negotiation skills.
- Learn how to simplify complex issues for non-technical audiences.
- Build credibility and trust with senior management and governance bodies.
- Enhance professional presence and impact as an audit communicator.

Work Impact

- Improve the clarity, usefulness, and influence of audit reports.
- Strengthen collaboration between audit, management, and the board.
- Enhance transparency, accountability, and follow-up on audit recommendations.
- Foster a culture of open, constructive communication across departments.
- Increase the strategic contribution of the internal audit function.

Training Methodology

This program emphasizes practical, interactive, and experiential learning to ensure participants can apply communication and reporting techniques immediately.

Learning methods include:

- Real-life audit report reviews and analysis.
- Group exercises in writing, editing, and presenting reports.
- Case studies and simulation of audit committee presentations.
- Peer feedback sessions and communication style assessments.
- Practical templates and toolkits for ongoing use.

Beyond the Course

Upon completion, participants will be equipped to produce high-impact audit reports and deliver messages that inspire understanding, accountability, and action.

They will leave with refined communication skills, greater confidence, and the ability to enhance the influence and value of the audit function within their organizations.

