Organizational Influence Training

31 January – 4 February 2027
Amman (Jordan)

Organizational Influence Training

Ref: 328864_231122 Date: 31 January – 4 February 2027 Location: Amman (Jordan) Fees: 4200 GBP

Why This Course

In modern organizations, success depends not only on authority but on the ability to influence. Organizational Influence Training equips professionals and leaders with the skills to inspire action, gain support, and drive results across hierarchies, teams, and networks.

This program explores the psychology, strategy, and communication techniques behind effective influence. Participants learn how to build credibility, shape perceptions, and lead through persuasion — turning ideas into initiatives and vision into reality, even without formal power.

What You'll Learn and Practice

By joining this program, you will:

- Understand the principles and psychology of influence in organizational settings.
- Learn how to build credibility, trust, and personal authority.
- Master techniques of persuasion, negotiation, and stakeholder alignment.
- Develop influence strategies for leading without direct authority.
- Strengthen emotional intelligence and empathy in communication.
- Apply influence frameworks to drive collaboration, change, and innovation.

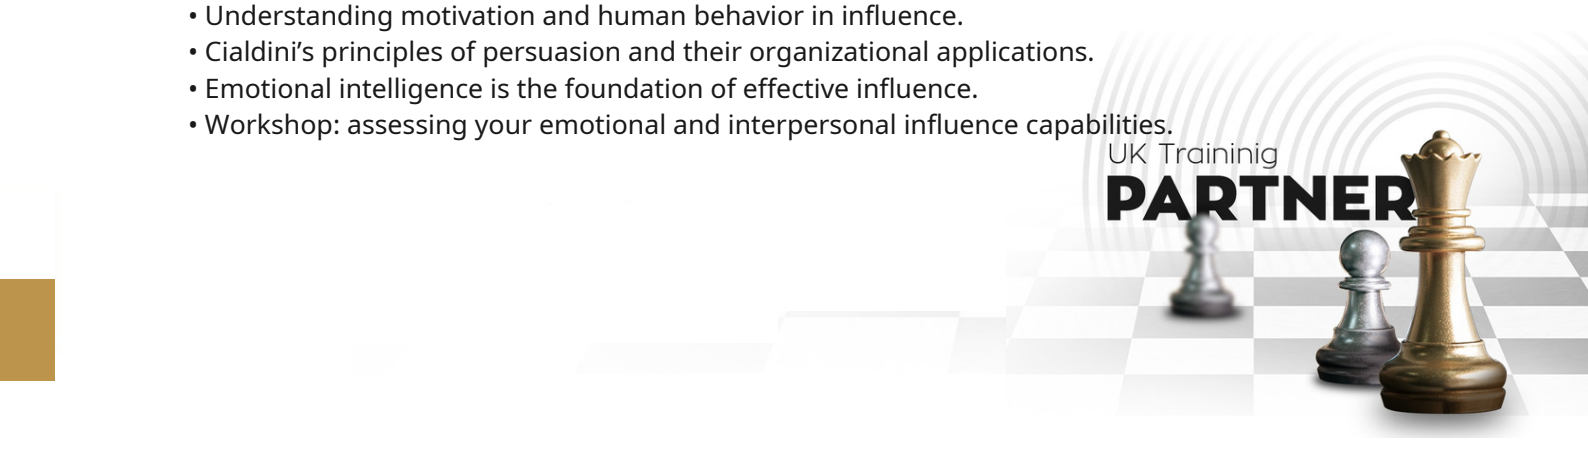

The Program Flow

Day 1: The Foundations of Organizational Influence

- The nature of influence: power, persuasion, and perception.
- The difference between authority and influence in leadership.
- Identifying your personal influence style and areas for growth.
- Case study: how influential leaders drive change through strategic communication.

Day 2: The Psychology of Persuasion

- Understanding motivation and human behavior in influence.
- Cialdini's principles of persuasion and their organizational applications.
- Emotional intelligence is the foundation of effective influence.
- Workshop: assessing your emotional and interpersonal influence capabilities.

Day 3: Building Credibility and Trust

- The three pillars of influence: competence, character, and connection.
- Communicating with authenticity and consistency.
- Storytelling and framing messages for impact.
- Practical exercise: crafting an influential communication for a strategic initiative.

Day 4: Influencing Without Authority

- Navigating organizational politics ethically and effectively.
- Building alliances and coalitions across departments.
- Managing resistance and negotiating with difficult stakeholders.
- Group project: developing an influence strategy for a real organizational scenario.

Day 5: Leading with Influence and Impact

- Influencing in complex, cross-functional, and global environments.
- Using influence to drive change, innovation, and cultural transformation.
- Sustaining influence through feedback, adaptability, and credibility.
- Action workshop: designing a Personal Influence Development Plan.

Individual Impact

- Gain the ability to inspire, persuade, and align others across levels.
- Strengthen communication, negotiation, and leadership presence.
- Build trust and credibility as a key influencer in your organization.
- Develop emotional and political intelligence for high-impact leadership.

Work Impact

- Improve collaboration and alignment across teams and functions.
- Accelerate project success through stakeholder engagement and buy-in.
- Foster a culture of influence, respect, and proactive communication.
- Enable leaders and professionals to drive results without relying on hierarchy.

Training Methodology

This program combines behavioral science, communication strategy, and experiential learning to ensure practical mastery. Learning methods include:

- Interactive workshops and real-world influence simulations.
- Case studies of influential leaders and change agents.
- Role-play and feedback-based exercises.
- Group projects and peer influence strategy design.
- Toolkits and templates for ongoing applications.

Beyond the Course

Upon completion, participants will be equipped to influence decisions, behaviors, and outcomes with integrity and confidence. They will leave ready to lead through inspiration rather than authority — becoming catalysts for collaboration, innovation, and lasting organizational success.

